2021 Conference Information Packet

Kauai, Hawaii | November 8-12, 2021

If you've never been to Kauai, it's time you check it off your bucket list.

If you have, you won't need our convincing to go back. The oldest of the Hawaiian Islands is home to perfect beaches, towering mountains, beautiful rivers, lush rainforest, and some of the most dramatic, rugged coastline you'll ever see. A day on the beach or in the surf is almost requisite. You'll also want to check out the stunning Na Pali Coast—with cliffs jutting out of the ocean thousands of feet, dotted with lush vegetation and waterfalls—it's a sight you won't soon forget. Venturing inland, you'll find hidden gems via guided trips in the mountains and jungles that cover much of the island. You can also spend some quality time on the links, with signature courses framed by jungle mountains, surf, and sand.

Grand Hyatt Kauai Resort & Spa

Located on the sunny southern shores of Kauai, the Grand Hyatt Kauai Resort & Spa provides guests with a luxurious, relaxing setting in one of the most beautiful destinations on Earth. The hotel offers dining options with local seafood, a tranquil spa, and spectacular vistas of Poipu's soft white sands.
